

As a flight attendant with a US carrier I STRONGLY object to allowing passengers to use cell phones inflight. There are enough security items to worry about without having to quell arguments and/or fist fights among passengers who object to their neighbors' loud incessant talking. I wrote a brief letter to Michael Powell regarding this issue before he left FCC but never heard anything. NO CELL PHONES INFLIGHT PLEASE!!!